DECLARATION OF THE ETA APPLICANT TO THE VISA AUTHORITY

As the applicant, I declare that:

The personal information provided in this form is collected, used, disclosed, and retained by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA). The information provided will be used to process applications. Personal information may be shared with other federal government departments and third parties, including law enforcement authorities, provincial/territorial governments, and/or foreign governments for the purpose of verifying identity, eligibility, and admissibility.

Personal information collected in an application and other supporting information may be used for advanced analytics, automation, and other technologies to assist in application processing and decision-making, including your application. Personal information, including that derived from advanced analytics, automation, and other technologies, may also be used for purposes such as research, statistics, program and policy evaluation, internal audit, compliance, risk management, strategic planning, and reporting.

If biometric data is submitted in support of an application, captured fingerprints will be stored and shared with the RCMP. Fingerprint records may also be shared with law enforcement authorities in Canada under subsection 13.11(1) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations. The information may be used to establish or verify a person's identity, to prevent, investigate, or prosecute an offence under Canadian federal or provincial law. This information may also be used to establish or verify the identity of a person whose identity cannot otherwise be determined due to physical or mental condition. Canada may also share immigration information related to biometric data with foreign governments with which Canada has an agreement or arrangement.

Failure to complete this form fully may result in delays or non-processing of the application. The Privacy Act gives individuals the right to access, protect, and correct their personal information. Further details are available in Info Source. If you are not satisfied with how IRCC handles your personal information, you may exercise your right to file a complaint with the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada. The collection, use, disclosure, and retention of your personal information is further described in the IRCC Personal Information Bank – IRCC PPU 068.
